Why a Certificate Matters

According to the American Bar Association, becoming a "trained paralegal" is important because your working hours are billable to clients. Texas courts demand proof of education before a firm can bill for a paralegal's hours. PDI's Paralegal Certificate Program awards a certificate that serves as educational proof.

The program fee of $2,225 includes more than $500 of textbooks - materials that are YOURS TO KEEP. PDI will furnish all study guides, notebooks and handouts. Students use these materials on the job.
