

About Our Instructors

Energy

Buck Ogilvie

W. Buckner Ogilvie, Jr. has had a special focus on design, implementation, controls and process improvements throughout his career.

About The Instructor

Buck served as a director in consulting for Deloitte & Touche, Houston, for more than 20 years. His focus was on design, implementation, controls and process improvements for new and existing clients. Key functionality included Land and Lease Records, Joint Interest Billing, Production Accounting and Revenue Accounting.

Professional Background

Buck has served as Vice President of Administration for Tomlinson Interests, Houston. Part of his duties included selecting and implementing a new E&P system. He has also worked for Excaliber Computer Systems in Houston. He founded the Houston office and eventually became President.

Educational Background

Buck attended Washington & Lee University in Lexington, Virginia.