Professional Development Institute University of North Texas

The Professional Development Institute located at the University of North Texas is a not-for-profit corporation that has been in existence for 50 years. It serves as an important source of education, information and training. PDI is a major supplier for oil and gas accounting education, corporate training, paralegal training and a number of other programs for professionals.

The University of North Texas is the leading university of the Dallas/Fort Worth region of Texas. It has more than 30,000 students and is the fourth largest university in Texas.

As a doctoral/research university, UNT ranks in the top 4 percent of U.S. colleges and universities classified by the Carnegie Foundation. UNT is the flagship of the UNT system, which includes the UNT Health Sciences Center at Fort Worth the UNT Dallas campus, and learning centers in the Frisco area.

Paralegal

PDI has been training legal professionals for 30 years and has working graduates throughout the nation. The paralegal profession consistently ranks as one of the fastest-growing professions in the U.S.

pdi.org/career-certificates

PDI's affordable Paralegal Certificate Program awards you a certificate of completion after only eight weeks of intense review. Instructors include attorneys, paralegals and specialists. According to the U.S. Department of Labor, the Bureau of Labor Statistics and the Occupational Outlook Quarterly, the paralegal profession is solidly ranked as one of the top ten fastest growing occupations! Salaries range from $28,000 to $75,000.

Why a Certificate Matters

According to the American Bar Association, becoming a “trained paralegal” is important because your working hours are billable to clients. Texas courts demand proof of education before a firm can bill for a paralegal's hours. PDI's Paralegal Certificate Program awards a certificate that serves as proof.
